Loads Program License Agreement

You may obtain this software and use for as long as you like by agreeing to the licensing restrictions, completing this license agreement, and paying the licensing fee. If you have any questions regarding this agreement, contact Grand Valley Engineering Solutions Customer Service Department at (970) 256-0353.

This agreement supersedes and makes all previous offers null and void.

Your license gives the right to install and operate the Loads program on as many computers as you like, but at only one physical address.

You may not modify the program or merge it with another software program.

You may not reverse engineer, disassemble, decompile, or attempt to discover the source code of the program.

You may not translate or create derivative works based on or which utilize the program.

You may not remove, obscure, or alter notice of patent, copyright, or proprietary rights related to the program.

You may not sub-license, sell, lend, rent, or lease any portion of the program to any third party.

You may not copy any portion of the program.

You may not transfer the program in violation of the United States Export Administration Act.

The program contain valuable and proprietary information of GVES protected by the copyright and trademark laws of the United States and other countries, international conventions, and other applicable laws. There is no transfer to you of any title to or any ownership of the program or any patent, copyright, trade secret, trade name, trademark, or any other proprietary rights related to the program regardless of the form in which they exist. You may not violate these rights, and you must take appropriate steps to protect GVES' rights.

GVES warrants that, upon delivery by GVES, the physical media on which the program is distributed will be substantially free from defects in materials and workmanship and that the program will substantially conform to the specifications established by GVES. GVES does not warrant that the program is free from bugs, errors, or omissions.

If the program fails to comply with the warranties set forth above, GVES will make a reasonable effort to correct the program error and replace the physical media. If GVES can not correct defective physical media or program errors, GVES will refund a fair portion of the price you paid for the program. The refund fully satisfies your claims for software or disk failure. Any replacement software will be warranted for the remainder of the license period.

This software can be coaxed into violations of the National Electrical Code. GVES will not be liable for errors in output, whether caused by operator error, bugs, errors, omissions, defects, or deficiencies in the software.

GVES uses its reasonable efforts to ensure complete, reliable, and accurate data however, GVES makes no guaranty or warranty as to the correctness or sufficiency of any information contained in this product and GVES assumes no liability or responsibility in connection with the information or it's use or application.

You acknowledge that you have read these license terms and agree to be bound by them. You further agree that these are the sole and exclusive terms of your agreement with GVES, that these terms supersede all prior and contemporaneous statements, and that these terms may not be changed except in writing, signed by an officer of GVES.

This program is copyrighted. Violation of the Copyright Law of the United States can result in civil damages equal to actual damages and profits from infringement, or statutory damages up to $50,000 in costs and attorney's fees, plus criminal penalties of up to one-year imprisonment and/or $10,000 fine.

I would like to license this application for an initial fee of $400.00 which covers program use during the first year. I understand that I will be obligated to a $100 license renewal fee for each successive year if I want to continue to use the program. I also understand that I can stop using the program at any time and have no further monetary obligation.

I would like to license this application for a one time fee of $1,200.00. I understand that when program updates with bug fixes and improvements are made they will be offered to me at a cost of $100. I also understand that my current version of the program will continue to function even if I decline update offers.
